

EURAG conference in Lithuania on May 2nd 2019

The aspects of Reducing Social Exclusion of Older Persons in Present Society"

May 2nd, 2019 9.00 - 16.00 hours

Conference venue: Ministry of Social Affairs , A.Vivulskio g.-ve 13, 03610 Vilnius

Lithuanian Minister of Social Affairs and Povilas Butkus, president of EURAG Association of Lithuania-welcome speeches

Ministry of Social Affairs – a representative responsible for seniors-
System of pensions in Lithuania before and after reform.

Laima Vengale-Dits,Equal opportunities ombudsman -Tackling age discrimination in Lithuania

Evaldas Židonis-vice-president of EURAG Association Lithuania-The Aspects of reduction of social divide of the elderly in Lithuania

Dirk Jarré, EURAG president-Poverty of older persons leading to social exclusion

Jaap van der Spek, Netherlands-What to do against Ageism

Rikela Fusha,Albania-Advocacy tools for elderly engagement in society

Peter Hansen, Denmark-Joint living community-prevention of loneliness

Rosemarie Kurz, Austria- Involment in art as a way against social exclusion

Roland Grunder,Switzerland-Senior action against exclusion and discrimination

Aneta Zubekova, Slovakia-Protection of the senior rights in Slovakia

Margreet van der Spek, Netherlands-The role of family doctors in prevention of exclusion

Galina Poliakova, Ukraine-Social isolation and stigmatisation of demented people and their families

Madara Mara Irbe, Latvia-Digital learning -a tool against social exclusion of seniors

Pavel Kalvach, Czech Republic-New factors of social exclusion and their impact of health

Dana Steinova, Czech Republic-Memory training as an effective tool against social exclusion

Lunch and two coffee breaks will be a part of the conference, when the conference is over, EURAG 30 minute musical performance follows, given by the EURAG vice-president Jaap van der Spek and his wife Margreet, then all together walk to the restaurant, dinner starts at 18.00 o'clock